

● 26/4/2022

Financial Times

Battle for control of Generali risks prolonged discord as vote looms

The article traces the "tug of war" of recent months between the shareholders of Generali represented on the Board of Directors and the core of shareholders close to Caltagirone, on the eve of the Assembly that sanctions the new top management of the Company. The two sides have presented a strategic plan to convince investors to support it. According to Lorenzo Pellicioli, the choice of the list submitted by the outgoing Board with the reconfirmation of Donnet as CEO for a third term should be taken for granted.